Welcome our guest speaker...

Alicia Patterson

Presenting Portraits of Faith

A fresh look at the female followers of Jesus and how their stories can teach us to know our own identity in Christ and find our calling as His disciples.

Alicia Patterson has been employed as both a teacher and pastor, but her current official focus is raising her four wonderful children and supporting her husband, Geoff, in his pastoral ministry. She is also an inspirational speaker, writer, dramatist, and business woman.

She holds a BA in English Literature and an MA in Religion. Her greatest joy is found in connecting people to Jesus so He can bring healing to wounds and replace Satan's lies with His truth; positioning people to be able to hear God speak His great and tender love to them and reveal to them their identity and destiny; and, encouraging people as they become free to grow into their God-given identity and destiny.
